About Me

I'm Eman Torr G. Berjame. I am a musician with 10 years of experience playing band competitions, solo gigs, and concert band concerts.

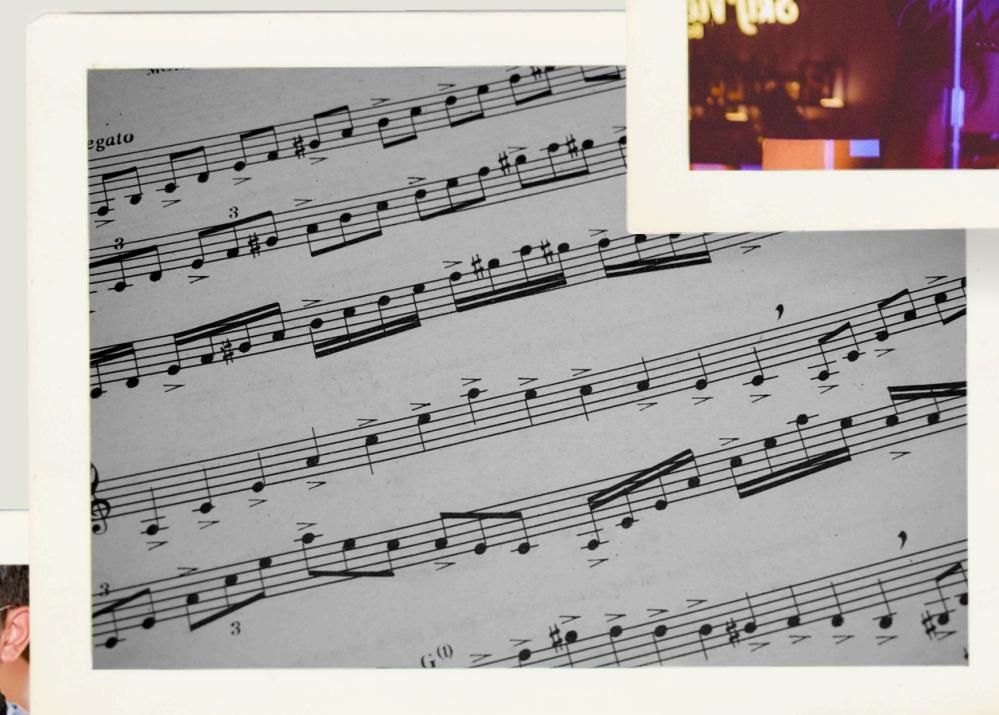

I have been loved music since my parents are musicians as well, and since music is what I love, I do my career started through music.

Apart from my musical life is I am a gamer and I love learning languages. I learn languages through music as my expertise of being deeply in love with music.

About Music

Music has been my world, shaping who I am and guiding my journey as a dedicated professional in my craft. I do singing and do sheet music arrangements and compositions in my craft.

I also play saxophones for 9 years and still playing in the present. Although I'm more focused on sheet music compositions and arrangements.

My Projects

My projects consist of other music sheet arrangements from other composers, mainly videogames and movies. I really love those kinds of genres that I do it my own renditions and arranging the music through concert band versions or orchestras
